

RAD Camp Medical Staff FAQ

What is the role of the RAD Camp Medical Staff?

At camp, our Medical Staff provides on-site care to all our participants including campers and counselors through administering medication, monitoring, emergency response and first aid.

For more info regarding the duties and responsibilities of a RAD Medical staff, please view our RAD RN Handbook.

What are the eligibility requirements?

In order to join our RAD Medical Staff, you must be a registered nurse, licensed vocational nurse, physician assistant, or medical doctor with a current, unencumbered, valid California license, possess valid professional liability insurance and hold a current CPR certification. 6 months experience working in the profession is preferred.

Can I still volunteer if I am a student in nursing, PA or medical school?

In order to volunteer as a student, you would need to be supervised. Please have your instructor reach out to Camp@RADCamp.org to speak with the RAD team!

How long is a RAD Medical Staff shift?

There are multiple shifts available at camp varying in length, but typical shifts range from 4 hrs to 12 hrs. See the RAD Camp Medical Staff schedule HERE!

How many shifts can I sign up for?

RAD Medical Staff is encouraged to sign up for as many shifts as they are available for! Our Medical Staff can sign up for shifts at one, two or all three of our sessions!

Where does RAD Camp take place?

RAD Camp is hosted at Vanguard University in Costa Mesa, California.
